Looking down that lonesome road
Hang down your head and cry
Studying about those pretty little girls
Lord, I wish I'd never die

Chorus

There's fish that's never been caught
Furniture that's never been bought
Everywhere that I've rambled around
There's more pretty girls than one

Chorus

My momma told me one day
She gave me good advice
She told me to quit my rambling around
And marry me a loving wife

Chorus
